A very frustrating night of baseball at 8th and Jackson. Both teams and fans were all up in arms over the home plate umpire. In all fairness to the athletic director of QND this was a make up game and most umpires were already scheduled in other places. They did the best they could do with short notice of the game. It appeared that this might have been the first game the home plate umpire had ever called.

Over all the umpire did not cause the Palmyra Panthers to lose the game. The final score of the game was 12 to 6 with QND winning the game. QND had a 5 run 3rd inning and they never looked back. QND had 11 total errors, but Palmyra could not capitalize on them. Corey Vaughn was the losing pitcher going 2 and 1/3 striking out 3 and giving up 4 earned runs. Scott Bross got 3 of the teams 5 hits.

Palmyra will host Centralia in a conference game on Thursday the 19th.
